

Who am I? Why am I here? – Psalm 8

Small Group Questions -Week of September 18, 2016

Intro- When can you recall feeling a sense of awe at God's handiwork? When do you recall starrng up into the night sky?

1. Read Psalm 8:1-2. When have you heard children speaking the truth about life, or about the Lord? What can children teach us about faith?

2. Read vs.3-4. What are these verses saying? What happens when people see themselves apart from a Creator?

3. Read vs.5-8. According to these verses, humanity has been given tremendous authority... with authority come responsibility. What is mankind responsible for in regards to creation?

4. Read Hebrews 1:1-3 and 2:6-8. Discuss the ways these verses tie into Psalm 8.

5. What periods of your life were you dealing with self-identity issues? Describe the circumstances? How did things play out?

6. How might the opening and closing statements (v.1&v.9) add to the rest of the Psalm? How might this bookend truth help the flow of the content?

7. Looking over Psalm 8, which verse stands out to you and why?